

Ethiopian Culture

Ethiopian Culture Museums

Addis Ababa is home to several museums that reflect the cultural legacy and ancient civilization of this

Horn of Africa country as shown in the pictures below :

Ethiopia National Museum, ethnological Museum, and Sidist Kilo.

Ethiopian food

Ethiopian cuisine characteristically consists of vegetable and often very spicy meat dishes, usually in the form of wat (also w'et or wot), a thick stew, served atop injera, a large sourdough flatbread, which is about 50 centimeters (20 inches) in diameter and made out of fermented teff flour. Ethiopians eat exclusively with their right hands, using pieces of injera to pick up bites of entrées and side dishes. Utensils are rarely used with Ethiopian cuisine. The following photos shows samples of Ethiopian food.

Ethiopian traditional dress:-

Ethiopia has a variety of traditional dresses emblematic of its civilization which is deeply rooted in history. The following photos features samples of such dresses:

Ethiopian architecture :-

Architecture of Ethiopia varies greatly from region to region.

Over the years, it has incorporated various styles and techniques as shown in the photos below:

Ethiopian folk dance :-

Ethiopia is the only independent country in Africa and one of the oldest country in the world. (over 3000 year history)Ethiopia has a very unique culture and variety of folk dance.Falk dance is one of the symbol of this unique culture. All Ethiopian people love dancing, and it is one part of their life.

For More information Please Watch this Video:-

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=2Ylq036oDjg>